After traveling in Canada, the United States, South America, Europe, India and the Middle East, Mark Metcalf has produced what may be the most informative wall calendar/picture book in existence on the global chemtrail spraying program. This immensely important work documents the chemtrail phenomenon with numerous photos of spraying over the major cities, wilderness areas, and historic sites of the world and introduces what appears to be the start-up of a second phase of the aerial spray program. Chemtrails of the World also contains extensive text detailing little-known facts about the spray itself and provides penetrating analysis on how these facts are connected. Is there a non-human power controlling many of the governments of the earth to facilitate a complex "Global Human Extermination Program"? Chemtrails of the World is a strangely beautiful and fascinating work that every thinking person needs to examine.
